WELCOME

THIS IS WHERE IT STARTS.

If you're reading this, you've already done what most people never will. You've decided you're done settling. Welcome to Team Vincere.

Over the next 12 weeks we're going to build a lot more than a leaner, stronger physique. We're going to build the habits, the discipline, and the quiet belief in yourself that carry into every corner of your life. The gym is just where we practice.

Here's my promise to you. I will never hand you a cookie-cutter plan. Everything we do is built around you: your body, your schedule, your goals, and the things you'll actually stick to. In return, I ask for one thing. Show up every single day and give me your honest best. Do that, and I'll take care of the rest.

You've got this. Let's get to work.

MY STORY

I'VE BEEN COMPETING MY WHOLE LIFE.

Before I ever picked up a dumbbell, I was a competitive gymnast. I grew up on the competition floor, traveling across Canada and competing at both Canadian and American Nationals. Competing isn't something I do. It's who I am.

When I found the gym, I wanted one thing: to get bigger. But as the size came on, something else happened. I got addicted. Not to how I looked, but to the process. The discipline. The daily pursuit of being a little better than yesterday. Five years in the gym, three of them fully dedicated to bodybuilding, and I knew exactly where I was headed. I'm chasing my pro card, and I'm not stopping until I get it.

At the 2025 Atlantics I took 1st in Men's Physique Open C and 2nd in True Novice. But the medals aren't the point. Seven years of coaching gymnastics taught me the real reward is watching someone realize what they're truly capable of, and that's exactly why I coach.

TRAINING PHILOSOPHY

INTENSITY, MADE PERSONAL.

Intensity builds physiques, but personalization is what makes intensity stick. Here's what coaching has taught me. If you don't enjoy the way you train, you won't train hard, and you won't train long. Progress quietly dies the moment you stop being invested.

So I don't do copy-paste programs. Every split, every movement, every rep scheme I write is built around your body, your lifestyle, and what genuinely lights you up in the gym. When a plan feels like yours, you attack it, and that's when real change happens.

The rest is simple. Train hard, train smart, and stay consistent. Talent is overrated. The person who shows up with intention every single day always wins.

Hard work and smart work will always beat talent. In the gym, and everywhere else.

NUTRITION PHILOSOPHY

NO MAGIC FOODS. ONLY DATA.

Let me kill a myth right now. There is no single food that will make you fat, and no single food that will get you lean. Anyone who tells you otherwise is selling something.

Nutrition is data. It's about finding the foods you genuinely enjoy, that fit your real life, and that we can build a sustainable, progressing plan around. A perfect meal plan you hate is worthless. You'll quit it inside a week. A flexible plan built around foods you love is one you'll follow for a lifetime.

We track, we measure, and we adjust based on how your body actually responds, not on rules somebody made up. That's how we win: with data, not dogma.

01

NO FORBIDDEN FOODS

It comes down to fit and quantity, never guilt. Every food can have a place.

02

BUILT AROUND YOU

Foods you enjoy make a plan you'll actually keep. Sustainability is the game.

03

ADJUSTED BY DATA

We change based on real results and your feedback, not someone's rulebook.

MARK, DIALED IN ON STAGE

CARDIO

LOW, STEADY, AND TRACKABLE.

Cardio isn't punishment, and it isn't about torching yourself into the ground. My approach is simple: steady state, kept light, and usually done fasted.

Why fasted and light? Because low-intensity steady-state cardio lets us burn fat while protecting the muscle you've worked so hard to build. And just as importantly, it's easy to measure. When cardio is consistent and controlled, I can see exactly how your body is responding and make precise adjustments instead of guessing.

We start conservative and add only what we need, when we need it. Every minute has a purpose.

PROTECTS YOUR MUSCLE

Kept light and low-intensity so we strip fat without eating into the size you've earned.

EASY TO TRACK

Consistent, measurable output means clean data, and clean data means smarter adjustments.

FASTED & EFFICIENT

Done in the morning fasted to prime fat use and keep the routine simple and repeatable.

ADDED WITH INTENT

We only add volume when the data calls for it. Never busywork, always a reason.

— THE MINDSET

VINCERE DAILY

VINCERE · VIN-CHAY-REH · LATIN: TO CONQUER, TO WIN

This is more than a motto. It's a way to live. We get one life. One. And I refuse to live mine with regrets. So we conquer daily: not just in the gym, but in how we eat, how we recover, how we show up for the people who matter, and how we talk to ourselves.

You don't have to win big every day. You just have to win the day in front of you. Stack enough of those together and you become unrecognizable, inside and out.

VINCERE DAILY.

THE WEEKLY HABITS

WIN THE WEEK, WIN THE PHASE.

Transformation doesn't happen in the gym alone. Every week, three habits keep us accountable, dialed in, and moving forward, no matter what life throws at us.

01 WEEKLY CHECK-INS

Every week we review your data, your photos, and how you actually feel, then adjust the plan so you're always progressing. No drifting, no guessing, no wasted weeks.

02 POSING PRACTICE

Presentation is a skill, and skills are trained. We practice it weekly so that when it's time to show your work, on stage or just in the mirror, you own every second of it.

03 GOAL SETTING

Each week we set clear, honest targets. Small promises kept to yourself compound into the kind of self-belief that changes everything, far beyond the gym.

PROOF IT WORKS

MEET MARK.

This is Mark. When Mark first came to me, he had one goal: to step on a natural bodybuilding stage within a year, and he'd never competed before. So we played the long game. First a lean bulk, taking him from 146 lbs to a solid 161 lbs over 20 weeks to build the quality muscle he'd need. Then we dieted him down to a shredded 131 lbs across the next 28 weeks, right on time for show day. That isn't luck or genetics. It's a full year of trusting the plan, tracking the data, and winning one day at a time.
